

Detective Aubrey Zalaski

Edmonton Police Service

Aubrey is a proud Edmontonian who has spent the last 29 years as a member of the Edmonton Police Service. He has served in Patrol, Beats, Traffic Section, Community Support Section, Professional Standards, Child Protection, Homicide, Corporate Communications, and now Respectful Workplace Section. If that sounds like a lot, he has also worked off the side of his desk as a Crisis Negotiator, Kidnap Team Commander, emcee, and co-host of a 9-year weekly radio program on 630 CHED called Coptalk. There is not much this guy can't do!

Aubrey is well known for his engaging and entertaining personality, and he looks forward to making this conference memorable for everyone.
